The grandstand has been sold out entirely, and only 300 or 400 remain of the reserved seats in the west bleachers. This means that an actual number of 2,000 tickets has been sold. It is probable the greatest advance sale which has ever been held in Richmond. In order that the players shall not be interfered with there will not be sold any more tickets than the grounds can accommodate. No crowding will be permitted, nor will there be any standing in the grandstand. The comfort of those who will take Lord's place on third base.
